

The City of Everglades City completed the Waterway Markers Project in August 2021 to alert boaters about the Manatee Zones in the waterways within the City's limits. This project was funded through a grant from the Florida Boating Improvement Program of the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission.

